

Don't be chicken!

There's no need to be nervous about trying our chicken.

Kentucky Fried Chicken is cooked to Colonel Sanders secret recipe all the way from Kentucky, U.S.A.

We use only the plumpiest, tenderest chickens - fresh, not frozen - anything but the best won't do for the Colonel.

The pieces are dipped in milk and egg, rolled in flour and seasoned with 11 different herbs and spices.

We can't tell you which ones, that's the Colonel's secret.

Next the pieces are fast cooked to seal in all the flavour and juices.

Then we pack 'em piping hot and ready for pickin'.

You can buy the Colonel's delicious chicken with his own specially prepared extras; crispy chips, barbecue beans, spicy sauce and cole slaw.

They're all finger lickin' good.

We're open longer and later than most, from 11 am till 11 pm or later every night. So you can enjoy real tasty chicken whenever you fancy it.

Come in and try some tonight and take some home for the family, it's the next best thing to home cooking.
